

The Unjust Tyrannical Anti-White Governments of the West

This is something that could indeed net me criminal charges in my home country. With my electronics seized and home raided as the dishonorable cowards of my country have done before. For this I feel empowered to betray them and transgress their laws and their limits. I will not be denied my freedom to speech after I served honourably in the military for 4 years and had my career stolen from me by unpatriotic cowardly and sly Shylocks.

Firstly, let me state not to cover my own backside but to be totally upfront and honest. I am not a National Socialist although I do admire and consider Reichsfolk a natural normal ethical way of life and progression of old aeon NS. However, I do abandon that form now to promote my own form of Ecofascism or Deep Ecology. That is to say I am a Green Anarchocapitalist who promotes Pagan Nationalism and Matriarchal ethos with a code of honour based upon that of the Bushido code of Japan and tempered in the empathetic compassionate noble, honourable, beautiful blood and steel philosophy of the Numinous Way.

That is to say that I do not hate any race not even that of the Yahoudi who have slaughtered and are slaughtering my Muslim brothers en masse daily along with their wives, their daughters, their children and their babies. The ignoble Zionist trash breed of Israel and Amerikkka continue to destroy and subvert the nobility of Islam.

As a Muslim I cannot be necessarily a nationalist in the sense of nation-first. I love all peoples I love everyone who loves me. I am not non-violent with anyone who is violent to me. That is not only self-defense but a task and a burden all men share. When harm shall come to their wives, their lovers, their daughters, their sons and their family and community they should take up like men and prepare to face battle. Draw the sword and not surrender not be a quitter no matter how hard they want to fall flat on their face. I march under my knees give out from under me. And I will march.

However, I do respect Jesus Christ and all his works. Even though I believe there was a distortion of the original Pagan ethos the primary individual or individuals to blame are once more the ignoble dishonourable Yahoudi. Who due to weakness reversed the role of master and slave. You can seek more of this knowledge through reading Nietzsche's "On the Genealogy of Morals".

Today unfortunately my friends and dear readers it is no longer normal, no longer acceptable and no longer legal in a sense to be proud of your race as a white man or white woman. A white woman who loves her race, raises her family and loves God is seen as a harlot whilst such human trash as Riley Reid are championed as female role models. Or Cardi B or other more often than not brown or black bisexual women are.

A woman's duty to her race is to be a mother, a daughter, a wife, a caretaker and to be not as the patriarchal masculine feminists but to be feminine. Caring, love, empathetic, compassionate and nurturing. More often than not such females love God, love tradition, love their families, respect their father and mother. They do not expose themselves with nudity or pornography except in the sense of the ancient Grecian aesthetical ideal ie not revealing the genitals. Do not laugh as even in the Arthurian tradition this is how the Pagan females greeted the knights of old. Naked from the waist up. I do not suggest women walk around topless however as some tribal women do. However, I betray my original point in this.

The point is today we have oversexualization of women and hypergamy — ie women having multiple sexual partners, numerous children from often black or brown fathers who more often than not they do not even know nor do such “fathers” suffice as such. An emphasis on intoxication by cannabis, alcohol or harder substances. An emphasis not on celibacy and modesty but on the behavior of a harlot. There is no “tasteful” nudity or admiration for female beauty. And due to the gluttony and focus on that of brown and black women there is no recognition of the Grecian ideal of aesthetics.

Males as well there is no focus on the ideal physique of the Greeks. Instead a focus on the over muscular, bloated, veiny and often unnatural unobtainable by normal means such as physical labour, farming, running, hiking or sports. It is only obtainable by a mixture of drugs and genetics. And as a former steroid user who was 10% bodyfat or lower and weighed in at 230 lbs I can that women do not enjoy or like that either. There is such a focus on intoxication as well in today’s society and a man having to be some sort of “alpha”. The ideal “male” is a very Jewish concept of a sly, cunning, manipulative, often wealthy “playboy” living by the patriarchal ethos of “might is right”.

This is not the Aryan ideal.

Until we change our souls people our minds will not change. Our society will not change and no bullet, no bomb, no explosion and no act of terror no matter how justified will result in anything but MORE TYRANNY!

Change your mind, change your soul and change your body.
